SESSION 1

CAPITAL GETS SELECTIVE: WHAT WINS IN SEE'S NEXT DEAL CYCLE

As private equity and strategic capital in SEE becomes more selective, scale, execution capability, and platform potential are increasingly decisive. Investors are increasingly winning by building regional platforms rather than backing standalone assets. This session will compare standalone businesses with buy-and-build strategies, exploring how investors consolidate markets, add bolt-on acquisitions, and create scale in fragmented, family-owned sectors. Panelists will also discuss integration risk, execution speed, and what drives exit premiums today.

- Marko Hinic – Partner, Integral Venture Partners
- Jonathan Herren – Investment Professional, Private Equity Infrastructure (CEE), Actis
- Dino Bendekovic – Managing Partner Adriatic M&A, Marktlink
- Invited: ALFI PE, BlackPeak Capital

SESSION 2

CROSS-BORDER EXPANSION AND THE STRATEGIC BUYER ADVANTAGE

Corporate buyers are increasingly shaping SEE M&A, using regional expansion and operational synergies to outpace traditional private equity. This panel will explore how strategic acquisitions create value, the challenges of cross-border integration, and the competitive edge that corporates bring to today's market. Attendees will gain actionable insights into deal execution, structuring, and driving growth across borders.

- Natasa Lalovic Maric – Partner, Wolf Theiss (Moderator)
- Kiren L. Naidoo – CEO, Frontier Pharma I Zdravlje AD
- Maja Barač Adrinek – Corporate Development Director, Atlantic Grupa

11:30 – 12:00 | Networking Break

SESSION 3

EXITS, NOT JUST ENTRIES

With SEE deal activity on the rise, understanding exit routes has never been more critical. This panel will explore the full spectrum of exit strategies – from IPOs and trade sales to secondary PE transactions – highlighting what works, what doesn't, and the lessons from recent regional exits. Attendees will gain practical insights into preparing assets for sale, navigating valuation gaps, and maximizing returns in today's competitive SEE market.

- Aleksandar Dragicevic – Principal, MidEuropa
- Tomislav Tomljenovic – Regional Director, Adria, Enterprise Investors
- Invited: Fortenova Group, Žito Group

13:00–14:00 | Lunch & Networking

SESSION 4

FUNDING SEE DEALS: FROM LPS TO DEBT PROVIDERS

This panel explores how private equity fundraising, co-investments, and deal financing come together to drive M&A in SEE. Panelists will share insights from fund managers, LPs, banks, and corporate finance leaders on structuring transactions, optimizing leverage, and securing capital for complex deals. Attendees will gain practical lessons on navigating cross-border finance, meeting investor expectations, and executing deals in today's competitive SEE market.

- Črt Slokan – Managing Partner, PRVA Capital Partners
- Laurien Field – Senior Equity Specialist, Manufacturing, Agribusiness and Services, IFC
- Invited: EBRD, HTEC

SESSION 5

REGIONAL CHAMPIONS IN THE MAKING: THE RACE TO BUILD SEE MARKET LEADERS

A clear shift from local champions to regional category leaders is visible across sectors. This session explores why scale is now a prerequisite for premium valuations in SEE, which sectors can produce regional champions, when expansion multiplies—or destroys—value, and how PE and strategic investors approach regionalisation differently.

- Marko Galic – Partner, Provectus Capital Partners
- Tihomir Dyankov – CIO & Partner, INVENIO.partners
- Andrija Garofulić – Partner, Forvis Mazars (Moderator tbc)
